3. Letter addressed to RAMIRO LOYS on the letterhead of the PGCC, signed by JULIO GARCERAN. The date on this letter had been erased with the exception of the year, 1962. This letter enclosed two memoranda, the information from which has been set out in the attached LHM. The letter further advised GARCERAN expected to leave for Guatemala the next day; that he had been unable to go to Washington on the 25th, but that he hoped to be there on the 27th.

Regarding the above letter LOYS advised he did not know whether this information referred to the month of May, 1962, or a previous month. In this connection, it is pointed out that referenced letter reflects that on 4/6/62, LOYS advised GARCERAN had written him stating he planned to return to Washington, D. C., about 3/27/62, but apparently, he had been delayed as he had not arrived.

Regarding the information contained in the attached LHM, LOYS requested care be taken in the use of this material inasmuch as he did not know whether or not anyone besides those directly involved were aware of these matters.

Concerning his appointment as Delegate of the PGCC in Washington, D. C., LOYS advised he had written GARCERAN a letter dated 5/28/62, in which he refused the position, stating he would not become connected with any such organization unless he knew it was backed by the United States Government. When asked why GARCERAN would again offer him the position when he had already turned it down (as set out in referenced letter), LOYS advised he could only surmise GARCERAN felt that if he persisted LOYS would accept the position due to their friendship.

LOYS LOYS stated he expected GARCERAN to be in Washington again in the near future and to contact him. Any information obtained at that time will be made available to the Bureau and interested offices.
